SafeCrop

TRAINING AND SERVICES

SafeCrop hosts regular courses for any level of education, in collaboration with its partners and with various Universities in Europe and in the Middle East and provides a wide number of services for Private Companies, Farms and other R&D Institutions

TRAINING:

- Courses and seminars for students in agricultural sciences
- Summer school for PhD students
- Training courses for farmers and growers
- Workshops on specific topics in sustainable agriculture
- Congresses and meetings
- Individualized training in DNA related techniques

SafeCrop First Internal Meeting, 6-7 December 2004

IOBC meeting, 9-13 June 2004

SERVICES:

- Biocontrol agent identification and characterization
- Pheromones identification and characterization
- Population genetics
- Epidemiological studies
- Efficacy trials against pests
- Molecular markers development
- Side effects
- Risk assessment
- Risk management
- Support in research projects preparation
- Market evaluation
- Socio-economical analyses
- Computer science applied to agriculture
- Decision support system for farmers
- Ecotoxicology
- Consultancy in pesticide registration

Current research on crops: grapevine, apple, strawberry, small fruits and horticultural crops